

HARMONY[®] KINGDOM

SIGNATURE SERIES

Peter Calvesbert

“I first picked up a piece of clay at age 3, but the opportunity to launch Harmony Kingdom was missed for another 30 years.

“In 1976 I took a job as a ceramic artist. Six years later it dawned on me that all the interesting people had left after six months. I took my cue and moved on.

“I dabbled in brick laying, cartooning, unemployment, plumbing and journalism. Then one day I watched a friend sculpt and said ‘I could do that.’ And I did. I concentrate on humorous work, and love the little twists I can add to a box to really make it sing. I hope I’m doing this when I’m 100. I hope you’re still enjoying when you’re 100.”
