TREASURE JESTS

BY MASTER CARVER PETER CALVESBERT
FIXED EDITION OF 600

Peter's dragon is back, and this time he is being bothered by none other than St. George. But the knight isn't faring so well and has just dropped his trusty sword. The incredible bits of other knights are found within the dragon's stomach. The date of St. George's day in the UK, April 23, is inscribed on the lid, as is the first year it was celebrated - 1222. "Bill 1564-1616" refers to that famous scribbler William Shakespeare who was born and died on St. George's day. Shakespeare's death in 1616 reminded Peter that the Barn Owl box in his field is also numbered 1616; hence, the word "owl" on the lid.
